

Setting Up a New Agenda for Facilitating Human Mobility After the UN Summit for Refugees and Migrants

KNOMAD Seminar

François Crépeau

United Nations Special Rapporteur on the Human Rights of Migrants
2016-2017 Drinan Visiting Chair of Human Rights, Georgetown University
Director, McGill Centre for Human Rights and Legal Pluralism
Hans & Tamar Oppenheimer Professor in Public International Law
McGill University

Outline

- Migrants are not represented
- The failure of deterrence and prohibition policies
- Externalisation won't work on the long run
- Developing a long term strategic mobility policy vision
- The road ahead after the New York Declaration
- The market of ideas for a 2033 Agenda on Sustainable Human Mobility
- Negotiating a small but focused number of critical ideas
- Conclusion: the silver linings